[illegible] To the Honorable Board of Trustees of Cambridge City [illegible]
After some consideration in reference to the erection of A Market House in said City we will offer our views in regard to it and we in the first place we take into consideration the amount which it will require to build A House of the kind that we think should be built too large for the limited amount of Money now in treasury and would require quite A Heavy tax the coming year to meet the amount, which ~~[illegible]~~ would not meet the approbation of A good Many of our Petitioners. Some of them would not mind as they do not pay any tax and some who do not live in the limits of said Corporation. We feel anxious to see something done in regard to the Matter as soon as there is funds sufficient to build A respectable House, but not until then, and as our Stewardship is about at A close, we shall leave the Matter for the consideration of our Successors   John Richey

At a meeting of the Common Council of Cambridge City Ind, the following resolutions, reported by H. M. Conklin, Thomas Newby, and Joseph Berry, a committee appointed for that purpose, were unanimously adopted by the Board:

WHEREAS, In the mysterious providence of Almighty God, death has closed the mortal career of one of our fellow members, the Late Frederick Schonsonbaugh,

Resolved, That in his loss this city has been deprived of a good, kind and generous citizen, as well as an active, energetic and faithful Councilman.

Resolved, That in the person of the deceased we realize that "noblest work of God, an honest man," a true friend and a kind neighbor.

Resolved, That we extend to the widow and family of the deceased our warmest sympathies in this hour of their sad bereavement,

Resolved, That we condole with our citizens under this affliction, and earnestly request that as far as practicable they close their places of business in the afternoon of March 19th, the day of the funeral.

Resolved, That we attend in a body the funeral services of our late co-laborer and friend, and invite all of our citizens to unite with us in paying this last tribute to his memory.

Resolved, That the Clerk be and is hereby ordered to place these resolutions upon the records of this Council, and deliver to the widow a copy of the same.

Resolved, That they be published in the Cincinnati Gazette, the Enquirer, the Richmond Palladium and the Indianapolis Journal & Sentinal.

MINUTES OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES, 1841- 1867

CAMBRIDGE CITY, INDIANA, (Jackson Township, Wayne County)

The proceedings of the Board of Trustees were indexed by W.P.A. and can be found in the back of each volume. The present index was made for aid in genealogical research and consists only of names which appeared in the record. If death or removals were indicated in the official record, they are noted here.

Since the same names appear repeatedly in the minutes, it seemed needless to list every entry; the page listed after the name indicates the first time it appeared in the record-- enough to establish the presence of the person in Cambridge City in the period 1841- 1867.
